- Lowell: Update website to match updated bylaws

Summary

The Southern Crossing Neighborhood Association held a Special Membership Meeting to discuss and vote on proposed changes to their bylaws. Lowell presented the changes, which included clarifying voting rights, allowing for virtual meetings, simplifying election procedures, and combining the secretary and treasurer positions. The board proposed these changes to streamline operations and align with practices of other neighborhood associations. After a brief discussion and no opposition, Laurie moved to approve the proposed bylaws, which Todd seconded. The Special Meeting ended with the approval of the bylaw amendments by a vote of 15-0.
